

THROW MY HANDS UP

Larry Jon Wilson

chorus:

I'm gonna throw my hands up in the air
I don't care, I swear I love you
I'm gonna shout it out loud now, I can't stay proud now
I know now I love you

I've been kep'in' me some strange company
I wish you'd let me come back home
All this mind busted talkin', light-lusted jokin'
Just won't leave me alone.
Music City's tryin' to break me
They never knew how to take me
They never thought it would make me wanna come home

chorus

Taken in the right light I believe that I might Think that pride is a righteous thing
Sittin' here all alone drinkin' beer all alone
Has started me in wonderin'
What it was that made me leave you
What it was that made me grieve you
Why couldn't I believe you wanna come home
